

MIDWEST BRAKE / CLUTCH

These brakes / clutches have friction disks that run in oil, free wheeling until pneumatically actuated to lock the unit to stop moving whatever it is working with. It is very similar to a motor brake. You can get a brake / clutch that is also electrically actuated. The style and type is dependent upon the particular application and load requirements.

